THE MUSEUM

The Museum Albino Luciani MUSAL, is situated next to the St. John the Baptist's Church in Canale d'Agordo and has been officially opened by Cardinal and secretary of the Vatican State, Pietro Parolin on 2nd August 2016.

The Museum, managed by the Fondazione Papa Luciani ONLUS, is a multimedia exhibition spread on four floors dedicated to the human experience of Pope John Paul I.

THE BIRTHPLACE

The birthplace of Albino Luciani is not far from the Museum and the centre of Canale d'Agordo. The house was bought in 2019 thanks to a generous donation by cardinal Beniamino Stella, by the Diocese of Vittorio Veneto. On 2nd August of the same year it was opened to the public.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST'S CHURCH

The church, located in Canale d'Agordo, dates back to the 14th century, therefore, many renowned local artists and religious men were baptised here. The building is enriched by important artworks such as Andrea Brustolon's tabernacle, Gaetano Callido's organ, Dante Moro's altar and Amedeo da Pos' statues.

THE ANCIENT CASA DELLE REGOLE

Built in 1640 the so called "Casa delle Regole", literally house of the laws, was the building in which the Regola, an organization that contributed to the management of the land, had its meeting point.

This building is the epitome of the saying "the valley with the saints by the windows". In fact, the facade is decorated by a fresco of mother Mary and other Saints like numerous other buildings scattered along the valley.

VIA CRUCIS

The path called "Via Crucis", dedicated to Pope John Paul I is a walk that stretches alongside the Biois stream on the "Cavallera", the ancient main road that ran through the valley, starting from Papa Luciani square in Canale d'Agordo going towards Caviola.

The trail consists of 15 boulders on which are placed 15 bronze tiles made by a local artist, Franco Murer, with representations of the way of the cross.

ST. SIMON'S CHURCH AND BATTUTI'S SCHOOL

The church is a national monument with great artistic value, evidence of its construction dates back to the year 1185.

The schola (1361) with its beautiful frescoes was completely restored in 2021.
